

Conference European Foreign Policy ASSESSING EU'S ROLE IN THE WORLD

Marta Dassù, Director General, Aspen Institute Italy: Economics and Security: the Reversed Alliance

Biography

Marta Dassù is director of Aspen Institute and a specialist of International Politics and Italian foreign policy. She's Director of the political review Aspenia and holds a course of International Politics at the University of Rome "La Sapienza". She was an advisor of the former Italian foreign Minister, Massimo D'Alema. Between 2004 and 2005 she has been Councilor for the Presidency of Italian Republic. Between 1998 and 2001 she has been Councilor for the foreign policy of the Italian Prime Ministers. In 1989 she has been appointed as Director of the Centro Studi di Politica Internazionale (CeSPI). She is member of the Steering Committee of the Istituto Affari Internazionali (IAI). Her articles have been published widely in Italy and Europe.